Ensure recruiters are guided daily on where to best spend their time and recruiting efforts. The power of combining inbound and outbound sourcing strategies in your CRM delivers recruiting success.

Internal Mobility

Your best recruiting strategy is employee retention. Organisations can improve retention by focusing on internal mobility. Clinch Internal Mobility provides a fully customizable internal career site designed and developed for the talent you know best, your employees. Providing a transparent and unique internal mobility marketplace helps your existing talent grow in their careers and improves employee retention. Internal mobility is a highly effective sourcing channel for pre-vetted, culturally-aligned candidates. Clinch helps you leverage internal mobility to fill critical roles while also building employee loyalty and trust.
